Press Release: The Choice of a New President: a sign of maturity in our political landscape.

The Gozo Business Chamber notes with satisfaction the unanimous approval by Parliament of Gozitan Myriam Spiteri Debono as the next President of Malta. The process which preceded her selection shows a maturing political landscape. The unanimous consensus, which is a first following the constitutional amendments introduced in 2020, is extremely important for a person holding this Office. The President is considered as a uniting figure who most often acts as the conscience of the nation, and who in times of crisis gives a sense of direction. Myriam Spiteri Debono has consistently shown through her political career, to be able to do this with distinction. The Chamber believes that the choice of a new President, after the constitutional amendments introduced in 2020, was an important testing point for our relatively young democracy, but one which was passed successful by both political parties. It shows that when political parties tackle issues beyond the political divide, important results can be achieved. The Chamber would also like to congratulate Francis Zammit Dimech on being nominated as acting President.

Il-proċess li ppreċeda l-għażla tagħha juri maturita' fix-xenarju politiku lokali. Il-kunsens unanimu li wassal għall-għażla tagħha, u li hija xi haġa ġdida wara t-tibdiliet kostituzzjonali mdaħħla fl-2020, huwa xi haġa mportanti ħafna għall-persuna li tokkupa dan l-Uffiċċju. Il-President huwa meqjus bħala figura li tgħaqqad, li ħafna drabi sservi wkoll bħala l-kuxjenza tan-nazzjon, u li tagħti direzzjoni fi żminijiet ta' kriżi. Myriam Spiteri Debono kienet kapaci turi b'mod konsistenti fil-karriera politika tagħha, li hi kapaci twettaq bl-aħjar mod possibli dan ir-rwol. Il-Kamra temmen li l-għażla ta' President ġdid wara l-emendi kostituzzjonali tal-2020, kien pass importanti fl-istorja tad-demokrazija ta' pajjiżna, li twettaq b'suċċess miż-żewġ partiti politiċi.
